Dear Jon

I went along to one of Jon's seminar at Metrobank and was fascinated by his insight into other peoples businesses and his statement that by employing him I would increase my turnover by up to 60%.

We embarked on our partnership with Jon which at the beginning called for pages and pages of answering questions and although it took a lot of time, it showed patterns emerging in the way we ran our business and small changes that would be which would make us much more efficient.

We relied on his advice to choose new offices, streamline our staffing and add an accounts department which has revolutionised our lives and everything else involved in running a company which makes us more profitable.

I cannot thank Jon enough for his invaluable advice and steering and we are well on our way to our target I totally recommend Jon for any company ready to fly to the next level like ours!

Regards

MANDY CHODY
